

Privacy Policy

This Privacy Policy describes how we handle your personal information for our services. Subject to the requirements of applicable law, we strive to provide a consistent set of privacy practices. By accepting the Privacy Policy and the User Agreement in registration, you expressly consent to our collection, storage, use and disclosure of your personal information as described in this Privacy Policy.

You can browse our sites without telling us who you are or revealing any personal information about yourself. Once you give us your personal information, you are not anonymous to us. If you choose to provide us with personal information, you consent to the transfer and storage of that information on our servers and in our offices located in the Switzerland.

We may collect and store the following personal information:

- email address, physical contact information, and (depending on the service used) sometimes financial information, such as credit card or bank account numbers
- Shipping, billing and other information you provide to purchase services and/or forward mail to you.

We do not sell or rent your personal information to third parties for their marketing purposes.

Our Disclosure of Your Information

We may disclose your information to Law enforcement or other governmental officials, in response to a order issued by a Switzerland court, relating to a criminal investigation or alleged illegal activity. In such events, we will disclose information relevant to the investigation.

Swiss Remote Global Inc. does not provide client information without an authorized court order as dictated by the governing laws of Switzerland.
